

This is BLEFESCU, a journal of Calhauer 5-man ("Napoleonic") Diplomacy. Subscriptions are 10 for $1. There is a game open, but the fee is in limbo (see below). This is Pandemonium Publication #178, edited and published by Rod Walker, 5058 Hawley Blvd., San Diego CA 92116; 'phone (714) 282-1921; member, NFF Games Bureau Diplomacy Division & IFW Diplomacy Society.

WELL, WE HAD THESE GAMES, SEE, AND...

What happened was that Dave May, in the process of graduating from high school and getting ready to go out to the University of Arizona, did not have time to keep up with the games. OK, so far? Anyway, I told Dave that I would take the games over the summer and keep them going. Then I said to Dave, I said, "Dave, mail me all the moves and Sealed Orders (if any), and I'll get the 'zines out." Ah-ha! Once submitted to the tender mercies of Uncle Sam's Post Office Disaster...you guessed it. It's been over a week since they were mailed 20 miles from here and they aren't here yet.

So here's what we will do. The games are recapitulated below and new deadlines set. Please send your moves in again. If the package from Dave ever does arrive (hohohoho), I'll use those moves and publish early. Any new moves or changes which arrive here before then will be used. Otherwise (if I don't get Dave's package), I will publish on the deadline.

The future of BLEFESCU is uncertain. Dave wants to keep it up, but the Freshman year at a big university may be enough to keep him busy. I will continue the 'zine until he is certain he can take it back. During this period, BLEFESCU will not be part of NUMENOR, which will therefore not be sent to those who received it only through this 'zine or M.U. Issues 3,129,356 and 1009 have come out since #178. Subscriptions are still $3/10.

The new game is still there, if Charles Turner wants his free game. The fee will be $6 if this 'zine again becomes part of NUMENOR and $4 if not. In either case, there will be a $1 discount for NFF Games Bureau or IFW regular members.
